the Union, Mo., bank robbers who were located in a cabin near Richview, Ills., have again escaped and posses of citizens, in addition to that of Sheriff Howe, are being formed to pursue and capture them, if possible. The entire community is in arms.

According to reports from communities through which the robbers have passed, they have adopted Tracy tactics, intimidating farmers and threatening to kill any posses that may be sent in pursuit of them. The two men converse only with women and children, from whom all the details concerning them have been learned, except the general description given by a hunter who encountered them in the Captain Wolfe, regimental inspector | The signal corps and battery A both had a full attendance at drill last from a trip to Oregon where, on account of his connection with the Utan count of his connection with the Utan guard, he was particularly interested in the national guard of Oregon. Captain Wolfe states that our organizations are equal in every way to those he saw at drill in the coast state, notwithstanding the fact that the latter troops receive much more encouragement. In Portland alone there are two infantry regiments, all quartered in the same armory, which covers a space equal to one of our blocks.

Chevrons are part of the new regulation uniform for enlisted men first to make an appearance. A number are seen at the fort, while a couple of pairs are being worn at the armory. The new insignia is much neater and

The High school students were so impressed with their decorations last Friday evening that no festorning was allowed to be removed until the entire hall had been photographed. The First Regiment band also got on its dancing clothes last week. The or-ganization gave a very successful hop at Christensen's hall Tuesday evening, the entire band providing the music. Sergeant Walter Schmier was unmore military than the oid, cumbersome style.

Colonel Sam C. Park made a trip to Nephi last week to supervise the election held by company A to fill a vacant lleutenantship. A number of candidates were out for the position and, as usual under such circumstances, a tight deadlock was the result. Another election will probably be called within a few days.

A movement to organize an officers' speant Walter Schmier was undoubtedly the most popular man in the signal corps last Thurshiay evening. After instructions with the flags and drill in the school of the company the corps was marched into the officers' quarters, where half a dozen pies bigger and thicker than mother ever thought of making, were already cut am dawaiting the onslaught. Yes. Why not?

More than half the wheat, more than half the corn, and nearly half the cotton produced in the United States is raised in the fourteen states and territories traversed by the lines of the "Rock Island System." Hard to believe, isn't it? But it's true.
